Antonia Radulescu emerged in the music scene at a young age, discovering her voice by making Youtube covers and participating in various music contests, local concerts and festivals, where she showcased her pop, R&B and soul roots and made a great impression.

Born on January 28, 2005 and raised in Timisoara, Romania, she started her career there and received high accolades and recognition. She began to play the piano as a child, taught herself how to play the guitar and ukulele and took lessons in vocal technique. At only 12 years old, she composed and performed her first two songs at StudentFest in 2017.

Antonia Radulescu, as an independent artist, at 15 years old, released her first single, called “Nobody”, in April 2020, “5 Streets Away”, in July 2020 and, her latest single, “Christmas Dream”, on December 11th, all of these being written and composed by her.

Her music connects with all people, and through her art, Antonia wants to introduce you to her own world, where you might also discover a little bit of yourself.

Antonia is ready to share her music with you and help you see the world through her eyes. Hopefully, this will make you tap inside and find new meaning that has always been there, waiting to be revealed.
